

Ken Howard and Friends - The Auction – 26th October 2017

Kids for Kids is delighted to announce that KEN HOWARD OBE RA, one of this country's best known, and loved, artists has invited his friends to join him in raising funds to help the forgotten children of Darfur at a 50/50 Auction on 26th October in London.

Ken Howard & Friends - The Auction brings together works by Royal Academicians, members of the Royal Watercolour Society and the New English Art Club, all of whom are personal friends of Professor Howard, and will be held on 26th October this year at the John Bly Gallery, King's Road.

This is a rare opportunity for works in both oil and watercolour to be hung side by side, by some of this country's most celebrated artists, many of whom are Presidents or Past Presidents of our most prestigious art organisations. The Auction will include some of the finest works by our leading artists, including:

Pictures may be viewed on line at www.kidsforkids.org.uk/the-auction The artists have provided a guide price, but there is also a reserve price below which pictures will be withdrawn. Bids may be placed on line up to noon on Thursday 26th October. Viewing will be at the John Bly Gallery from Thursday 19th October until the Auction on 26th October. There will be a Silent Auction on the night, results of which will be announced immediately prior to the main auction at 7.00p.m. to be conducted by John Bly. All bids are binding.

Ken Howard & Friends The Auction will be on view from Thursday 19th October at The John Bly Gallery 1st Floor, 533 Kings Road, Chelsea, SW10 0TZ
